INDICT TOJO, 27 OTHER JAP WAR LEADERS

Hey, Men! LOOK AT ALL THESE PANTS!

Oh, Yeah? Now Look At The Picture Below. Put It On Top Of This One And See Who's Wearing 'Em.

By NEA Service
NEW YORK—No wonder a veteran can't get a suit of clothes these days. His wife, or his girl, has it on already.

If you want statistics, chew these over: Before the war men's suits took 62 per cent of the available material, while women claimed the other 38 per cent.

Last year, the figures just about reversed. Men got 42 per cent of the cloth available—women 58 per cent.

Parts of the increased use of men's material for women's clothes springs from the war itself, when women put on pants and went to work in the nation's war plants. And part of it comes from better tailoring, and publicity, by the makers of women's slacks.

The slacks tailoring industry is just beginning to hit its stride, but already it's nearing adulthood with such annual affairs as the selection of the ten best dressed "women in slacks" and an all-out campaign to convince the women of America that slacks will even increase the allure of their curves.

He's To Blame
One person you can credit—or blame—for all this is Lou Schaeffer, New York City clothing manufacturer, the self-styled "King of Slacks." He says he's done a lot of research to put slacks in the so-called-accepted position they now enjoy.

Women are swarming into the pants field, says Lou. "It's terrific!"
"There's been a 500 per cent increase in the slack-wearing female population. Moreover, that percentage is on the steady increase. I can't possibly make enough to cover the—sales demand."

$525 IS REPORTED IN CANCER DRIVE

Collections in Salem's cancer fund drive are far below expectations, Junior Chamber of Commerce officials said today as they sent the campaign into its second week.

Chairman Alroy Bloomberg reported that only $525 has been collected during the first seven days of the drive. Of that sum, $386 was turned in by N. I. Walken, manager of the State and Grand theaters, after completion of a four-day collection in the State theater.

Every effort is being made by the Junior Chamber to arouse interest in the drive against the disease which takes the lives of thousands of Americans annually.

Citizens are urged to place their contributions in the coin boxes which have been placed throughout the city or to mail them to campaign chairman.

Lewis, Coal Operators Resume Negotiations

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Labor department said today negotiations between John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators, broken off April 10, will be resumed immediately.

Speaking on behalf of the department, Les Eichel, press representative, said the joint conference will be resumed in the Labor department conference rooms at 2:30 p. m. with special mediators Edward F. McGrady and Paul W. Fuller sitting in.

Eichel made the announcement after a 90-minute conference this morning between Schwellenbach and Lewis and his negotiating committee.

The secretary met with the operators negotiating committee yesterday. A representative said the producers had stood pat on their refusal to commit themselves in advance to a union-administered health and welfare fund, a point on which the negotiations floundered April 10. Lewis has declined to discuss wages until the point is settled.

Mediators Chosen
Edward F. McGrady, former assistant secretary of labor and now a vice president of the Radio Corporation of America, sat in as a special mediator with Lewis for the first time today. He and Paul W. Fuller, previously named a mediator, will represent Schwellenbach in the conferences.

Lewis had nothing to say to newsmen as he entered the walnut-lined office of the secretary today.

But you can't stop women from buying pants," Schaeffer says. "Look, the Red Cross gives every foreign bride coming to the United States a pair of slacks. Didn't the WACs and nurses wear them overseas right into the battlefield?"

Women want slacks. They're going to get them one way or the other. If you stop production of women's slacks, they'll walk right into men's shops and buy men's pants.

"If you make pants especially for women you use less material and in most cases lighter and brighter material than would go into men's pants, so you really let more go into production of men's clothes."

"And a man can go into a man's shop and shop in peace without elbowing a lot of women away from the counter."

Schaeffer himself had on a pair of pants when he said all this. But it's beginning to look as if the rest of the males may have to take up the slack with a pair of kilts.

He posed with McGrady for pictures but good-humoredly declined to stand too close to the conciliator.

Meanwhile, Mr. Truman's concern over the dwindling coal supply was reflected in the solemn demeanor of Reconversion Director John W. Snyder who also accompanied the President back to Washington from Quantico, Va., after a week-long vacation.

The reversion chief reportedly told the President that if the 400,000 soft coal miners remain out of the pits another two weeks the paralyzing effect of the strike will be felt all over the country. It already has hit the steel industry hard, Snyder told Mr. Truman.

Christian Party Winner In County Voting In Germany

By RICHARD O'REGAN

FRANKFURT, April 29.—Germany's fast growing new political party, the right-of-center Christian Social Union, won an overwhelming victory in weekend county council elections in the American zone, marred by rioting and pro-Nazi activity.

Conservative rural voters gave the church-supported party almost a two to one lead over its nearest rival, the slightly left wing Social Democrats.

The Communist party polled only a bare 5.4 per cent of the 3,136,347 votes cast in the second free election in the area in 13 years.

While 6,043 elected county officials took their seats on rural councils today, four United States Army agencies were investigating a street battle between German voters and more than 5,000 Jewish displaced persons at Dissen in Bavaria.

Eighteen Are Injured

Six persons were reported still in hospital out of 18 treated for stab wounds and beatings in the riot which finally was quelled by American soldiers.

Search was underway for two Jewish guards whose disappearance prompted the displaced persons to rush the German police after a report circulated that the guard had been murdered by civilians.

Counter-espionage agents were probing the appearance of Nazi Swastikas in another Bavarian town and the setting fire to a Communist meeting hall.

Rural voters in staunchly pro-Catholic Bavaria gave the Christian Social Union its big total of 1,779,203 votes to the Social Democrats' 936,763 by overriding the majority the latter secured in more industrialized greater Hesse.

It was in the province of greater Hesse that the Communists won their biggest vote, polling eight per cent of the total vote of 1,090,850 cast in the state, which includes the industrial cities of Frankfurt, Wiesbaden and Kassel.

Agriculture Department Lists Way To Help Starving Europeans

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of three stories in which The Associated Press will list specific ways Americans can conserve food.)

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 29.—There is a starving family on your doorstep. Will you turn them away?

They are the hungry millions of Europe, China, India. Their food must come from every American home, as surely as if they knocked on the door and asked.

You want to feed them but don't know how? The bureau of Home Economics of the Agriculture department says these are some of the ways:

Hungry families in Europe need bread. Starving thousands in China need rice. Americans who eat potatoes can give them both.

Use mashed potatoes instead of toast under creamed meat, chicken, fish. Try poached eggs baked in nests of mashed potatoes.

Ask for potato salad instead of a sandwich. Stuff meat or poultry with potatoes instead of bread. Try mashed potatoes instead of pastry atop meat pies and other baked dishes.

At breakfast, serve potatoes occasionally instead of wheat cereal or breads. One small serving of potato is equal in food value to a slice of bread.

Use those leftovers. Mashed potatoes make potato cakes, boiled potatoes can be turned into hash-brown or creamed potatoes.

In making pancakes, replace a large part of the flour with fresh grated potato. Let mashed potatoes do duty for some of the flour in making hot potato scones and rolls.

Use potatoes in place of rice, whenever possible. Don't throw rice at weddings. You may be tossing away a starving child's dinner.

Starvation Claims Exaggerated, Says Ex-Belgium Envoy

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, April 29.—Urging care of our recent Allies "and not our recent enemies," Charles Sawyer of Cincinnati, former United States ambassador to Belgium, today declared reports of European starvation "were exaggerated" when he left Belgium.

"I do not know what conditions are today in Europe," he told the Columbus Kiwanis club, "but I do know that when I was there a few months ago, statements made as to starvation in Europe were exaggerated."

In his prepared speech, Sawyer recommended keeping the atomic bomb secret and decried dissension among the Allies. "We are finding it easy to condemn our recent Allies," he said, "and we are becoming more and more solicitous of the welfare of our recent enemies."

Can't Feed World
"It is mathematically demonstrable that we cannot feed the world," he asserted. "That being so, which countries deserve it (feeding)?"

"For me, clearly and unequivocally, the ones who should be cared for are our recent allies and not our recent enemies."

Sawyer stressed the view that the United States "must soon recognize the limits of our resources, as well as the limits of our obligations."

Studies Power To Remove Officials In Gambling Areas
COLUMBUS, April 29.—Apparently seeking means of putting pressure behind his campaign to smash alleged gambling law violations, Gov. Frank J. Lausche today announced he was studying past and present laws dealing with removal of local officials with an eye to a request for legislative action.
Lausche explained to newsmen that he now has power only to remove mayors, that the power of gubernatorial removal of sheriffs and prosecutors was taken away in the 1920s.
He said removal actions in the 1920s became so numerous the state legislature passed the Bender law, which left mayor removal power in the governor's hands but placed power of removal of sheriffs and prosecutors in local applications.
(Removal of sheriffs and prosecutors may be sought by a petition signed by 10 per cent of the registered voters and placed in the hands of common pleas court.)

Calif-Lifting Marathon Ended By Young Farmer
SOMERVILLE, N. J., April 29.—Allen LaFleur decided to end his lifting marathon, now that Phoebe weighs 365 pounds and he tips the beam at a mere 149.
For more than six and a half months, the 17-year-old high school senior has been lifting Phoebe every day in an effort to duplicate the feat of Milo, the Greek strong man of 2,000 or more years ago, in lifting a calf daily until it becomes a cow.
Phoebe, who weighed 72 pounds when it all started Oct. 9, has become a prize-winning heifer and is now being groomed for the National Dairy show in Columbus, O., in October.
"Milo was a full-grown man," said Allen last night. "And I'm not. Besides, we decided I'd better not ruin my health by continuing."

400 ATTEND YOUTH RALLY SATURDAY
Approximately 400 people attended the Youth For Christ rally at the Memorial building Saturday night when Douglas Hine, superintendent of the Cleveland City Mission, spoke.
The girl's choir of the Trinity Lutheran church, directed by Mrs. Elwood Hammell, Jr., and a Junior High school ensemble group, directed by Walter Regal, furnished the music for the affair.
Mrs. Ruth West Spalding gave a vocal solo.

By RICHARD O'REGAN
FRANKFURT, April 29.—Germany's fast growing new political party, the right-of-center Christian Social Union, won an overwhelming victory in weekend county council elections in the American zone, marred by rioting and pro-Nazi activity.
Conservative rural voters gave the church-supported party almost a two-to-one lead over its nearest rival, the slightly left wing Social Democrats.
The Communist party polled only a bare 5.4 per cent of the 3,136,347 votes cast in the second free election in the area in 13 years.
While 6,043 elected county officials took their seats on rural councils today, four United States Army agencies were investigating a street battle between German voters and more than 5,000 Jewish displaced persons at Diessen in Bavaria.

County Farm Labor Situation Brighter

Ohio's farm labor picture brightened somewhat today with reports that increasing numbers of war veterans are expressing a desire for farm work.
Guy Dowdy, supervisor of emergency farm labor at Ohio State university, reported 500 workers would be brought in from Arkansas to help produce and process tomatoes in western Ohio, principally in Miami, Darke, Mercer and Preble counties.
On the darker side of the picture, Dowdy listed a general lack of experienced help to work by the month and live in the farmers' homes and a need for more Jamaican farm workers to help during fruit and vegetable harvesting in the northeastern section.
Although Columbus county is an agricultural county, most of the farms in this area are of the smaller family operated type and require little extra help. Consequently, according to County Agent Floyd Lower, the labor situation here is considerably better than it has been since before the war.

A goodly number of returned veterans are showing interest in farm work under the G. I. Bill of Rights and many are utilizing the apprentice training program in Columbus county.

Coal Company's Office, School Are Burglarized
LISBON, April 29.—The Pine Hollow Coal Co. office, north of Ekton on Route 154, was broken into sometime Saturday night.
Sheriff George Hayes said a portable radio, a 22 calibre pistol and a vending machine were taken by the thieves, who made entrance by breaking a rear window.
Sheriff Hayes also investigated vandalism at Chandler school, three miles west of Lisbon on Route 30, where intruders scattered books, ink and other equipment around the schoolroom. Nothing was taken.
It was the third burglary at the school this year, the sheriff said. Two suspects, both students at the school, are to be brought into juvenile court today.

Curry, recently appointed welfare director for this county, will take over his new duties May 1.

You Can Help

Agriculture Department Lists Way To Help Starving Europeans
(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of three stories in which The Associated Press will list specific ways Americans can conserve food.)

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 29.—There is a starving family on your doorstep. Will you turn them away?
They are the hungry millions of Europe, China, India. Their food must come from every American home, as surely as if they knocked on the door and asked.
You want to feed them but don't know how? The bureau of Home economics of the Agriculture department says these are some of the ways:
Hungry families in Europe need bread. Starving thousands in China need rice. Americans who eat potatoes can give them both.
Use mashed potatoes instead of toast under creamed meat, chicken, fish. Try poached eggs baked in nests of mashed potatoes.
Ask for potato salad instead of a sandwich.
Stuff meat or poultry with potatoes, instead of bread. Try mashed potatoes instead of pastry atop meat pies and other baked dishes.
At breakfast, serve potatoes occasionally instead of wheat cereal or breads. One small serving of potato is equal in food value to a slice of bread.
Use those leftovers. Mashed potatoes make potato cakes, boiled potatoes can be turned into hash-brown or creamed potatoes.
In making pancakes, replace a large part of the flour with fresh grated potato. Let mashed potatoes do duty for some of the flour in making hot potato scones and rolls.
Use potatoes in place of rice, whenever possible.
Don't throw rice at weddings. You may be tossing away a starving child's dinner.

Starvation Claims Exaggerated, Says Ex-Belgium Envoy
(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, April 29.—Urging care of our recent Allies "and not our recent enemies," Charles Sawyer of Cincinnati, former United States ambassador to Belgium, today declared reports of European starvation "were exaggerated" when he left Europe.
"I do not know what conditions are today in Europe," he told the Columbus Kiwanis club, "but I do know that when I was there a few months ago, statements made as to starvation in Europe were exaggerated."

EMPEROR NOT MENTIONED IN ALLIED LIST

Trial Dates To Be Set After Arraignment Day On May 3
(By Associated Press)
TOKYO, April 29.—Japan's warlord Hideki Tojo and 27 other militaristic leaders were indicted by the Allies today as war criminals.
They will be arraigned May 3 on 55 specific charges ranging from murder of thousands of Americans—on Pearl Harbor day—to conspiracy to hammer the whole world into slave states of the Axis.
Trials will be held before an 11-national tribunal.
Tribunal members heard Chief Allied Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan read the indictments at the Japanese war ministry building, then called U. S. Navy Capt. Beverly M. Coleman, who will head the defense, into a brief conference.
Neither Keenan nor Chief Justice Sir William Webb, who heads the Allied tribunal, would comment on the historic 35-minute session.

Those Indicted
Named in the indictments were: Four former premiers: Tojo, Baron Kichiro Hiranuma, Koki Hirota and Gen. Kuniaki Koto. Adm. Osami Nagano, former chief of staff whose direct order launched the attack on Pearl Harbor. Gen. Kenji Doihara, Japan's "Lawrence of Manchuria," who engineered the pre-war Manchurian incident.
Three principal arrangers of the tri-partite pact with Italy and Germany: Former Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, Gen. Hiroshi Kohma (ex-ambassador to Germany), and Toshiro Shiroto (ex-ambassador to Italy).
Six other former ministers: Gen. Sadao Araki, war; Okinori Kaya, finance; Jiro Minami, war; Manori Shigenitsu, foreign; Shigetaro Shimada, navy; and Shigenori Togo, foreign minister when the war began.
Gen. Yoshijiro Umezu, who with Shigenori signed surrender terms aboard the U.S.S. Missouri in Tokyo bay last September.
Marquis Koichi Kido, former lord keeper of the privy seal and influential advisor to Emperor Hirohito.

Panay Officer Named
Six other army leaders: Col. Kinzoro Hashimoto, whose artillery helped sink the U.S. gunboat Panay in China before the war; Shimroku Hata, former field marshal and commander-in-chief in China; Shishiro Itagaki, former general and chief of staff of Japan's Kwantung army; Heitaro Kimura, former general and Kwantung chief of staff; Gen. Iwane Matsu, commander during the rape of Nanking; and Akira Muto, chief of staff.

Four Sisters Married In Quadruple Wedding
DETROIT, April 29.—Four sisters were honeymooning with their bridegrooms today following a quadruple wedding.
Rev. Benjamin T. Hoffiz, pastor of St. George Syrian Orthodox church, who officiated at the successive ceremonies Sunday, said such a quadruple wedding was unprecedented in marriage annals.
The father of the brides, George Saieg, made two trips down the aisle and back, escorting his attractive daughters in pairs to the altar.
The brides and their respective grooms, all but one from Detroit, were Mary Saieg, 21, and Mitchell Salhaney, Dorothy, 19, and Louis Snage, Rosie, 18, and Farrah Canasi of Havana, Cuba; and Helen, 22, and George Saieg, no relation.

Shutting The Mouth

We hold no special brief for the National Association of Manufacturers in its wide-open campaign to discontinue OPA when the Price Control Act expires June 30.

But this business organization, together with other business organizations, such as United States Chamber of Commerce and National Small Business Men's Association, which also are opposed to continuation of price control on existing terms and in fact on any terms at all, have a right to their opinion. We hold a brief for their right to be heard in a public debate without interruption of bureaucrats.

Their spokesmen have been invited to Washington to give expert testimony before congressional committees. In addition to their direct testimony, these and other organizations and individuals have given a great deal of indirect and uninvited testimony, which is their privilege in a free country. They are talking in defense of their own livelihood. Yet, they are being accused at every turn of falsehood, avarice, reaction, even corruption.

In all their activities they have put their cards on the table. They know what the stake is. They know, or think they know, what the opposition's stake is. After a decade of experience with the principal elements of the opposition, they have a healthy respect for its fighting ability. They expect name-calling. They are not above calling names themselves. The struggle to keep private enterprise from being plowed under in the United States is no pillow fight.

Every conscientious citizen must object, has a duty to object, to the presence in this fight of the people's paid public servants. The Chester Bowles and the Paul Porters of the new New Deal burrowing in Washington under the Hannegans trying to build Harry Truman into a man on horseback have no right to impugn the motives of any taxpayer while they are on the public payroll. They are drawing their salaries as administrators, not advocates. If Mr. Truman can order the Navy's admirals to shut their mouths in a dispute which can be settled only by Congress, he is six weeks late in ordering bureaucrats abusing taxpayers in the fight over OPA to shut theirs.

365 Days Since Hitler

A few days ago morbid vandals dug up the corpse of Benito Mussolini from a grave in Milan and excited a spasm of political nerves in the wreckage of the dictatorship he established.

No one has dug up the corpse of Adolf Hitler, nor seems likely to find out where to start digging. In Germany, in Europe, in the world, only 365 days after his death, Adolf Hitler is unimportant, no longer even a stirring symbol, but only a memory of a wretched interval when millions of men killed one another in his name and against it.

During the war, it was customary to speak of Hitler doing this, Hitler doing that, as if the paranoiac Austrian had the ability to be everywhere at once and make all major decisions in his own mind. There was a crusade, men told each other—a crusade to overthrow Adolf Hitler. Germans told each other it was glorious to die to keep Adolf Hitler from being overthrown.

Some of this represented carelessness in substituting the name of a man for the name of a nation. The war was not fought against Hitler, but against Germany. Hitler did not make all decisions; he made only a few of them, some disastrously bad. Most decisions were made by lesser lights in a conspiracy that is now seen to have used Hitler more than Hitler used it. But some of it represented a tragic misconception of the war.

Victory was not to be won by getting rid of a Mussolini, a Hitler, or a Japanese figurehead. It was a thing to be won by getting rid of the kind of warped and bloodthirsty reasoning that made the Mussolinis, Hitlers and the other figureheads possible. Nothing was settled when Hitler's death was reported by his underlings a year ago. Nothing has been settled by Mussolini's death previously, and nothing is being settled by Hirohito posing for photographers in his ridiculous pose of the friend of the people. The despots were disposed of, but not despotism.

Fact Finding

The looming threat of a strike by key operating employees of the nation's railroads follows, as most strikes and threats of strikes in major industries have followed, the efforts of a fact-finding board.

In this instance, the board had been established under the Railway Mediation Act. Known as an emergency board of inquiry, it is the last step in the elaborate procedure set up under the act to avert railroad strikes. Its recommendations were wholly unacceptable to the policy-making heads of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and of Locomotive Engineers. Whether or not they also were unacceptable to railroad operators is problematic; the operators seemingly were not given any chance to refuse them.

Fact-finding as a kind of last hope for doing something about strikes is willed and battered. When seasoned trainmen, with long experience under the Railway Mediation Act's procedural steps for averting strikes, become as contemptuous of fact-finding as any bumptious, inexperienced and badly-disciplined group of Wagner Act freshmen, a so-called fact is worth no more than another prejudiced opinion.

By hindsight—all the way back to 1926 when the Railway Mediation Act was passed, as a matter of fact—seems pretty plain now that facts never did have much bearing on the outcome of labor disputes. In the first place, facts are treacherously variable; they depend on what the fact-finder is looking for. In the second place, all facts adduced in a labor dispute must yield eventually to one of two facts that supersede all others. They are: (1) the union's determination to get more money or (2) the employer's determination not to pay it. Anything else ceases to be collective bargaining.

The Stars Say

For Tuesday, April 30.

JUDGING by important planetary aspects, this may be a difficult and trying day, with the possibility of loss of substance, credit, resources, reputation, as well as peace of mind. There are signs of friction, strife, ill-nature and strain.

Competition or rivalry may incite to rash or careless activities in which extravagance, excess or over-indulgence in assets, energy and unreasonable conduct. Minor matters may thrive but in all major affairs, use sound logic and precaution.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of cross-purposes, with important matters moving into loss and dissatisfaction, largely through extravagance, self-indulgence, excesses or acts of impulsive emotional urge rather than by sound reasoning, good sense or logic.

The incentive to "splurge," overact, to stress and strain through rivalry, enmity or competition would result in loss of credit, funds, standing or reputation. With care and precaution, there may be some minor benefits, as well as social or affectional gratifications.

A child born on this day will be active and energetic but stirred by its impulses or emotions, to its detriment, with loss of substance and energies through excess or extravagance.

A learned musicologist has advanced the theory that it was a bagpipe, and not a fiddle, that Nero played while Rome was burning. Here, perhaps, we have the classic ancestor of our modern fire siren.

When a right guy goes wrong there are always plenty of wrong guys to go right along with him.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

The Function Of The Lymph Glands

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

THE lymph glands of your body perform much the same function as the oil filter in your car for the latter filters out dirt, and the former filters out germs and infection.

It is not surprising that, where infection is frequent or of long duration, the filters themselves should become clogged with these toxic materials. When they do, they reverse their role and instead of affording protection, become a source of danger.

Filtering Stations

Now, one of the greatest of these filtering stations is in the throat. It consists of the tonsils and other lymphoid glands there.

Repeated infections of the nose and throat cause these lymphoid glands to work overtime and in the process they increase in size. Then an excessive amount of mucus is formed in the throat which blocks breathing and the opening of the eustachian tubes which lead from the throat to the middle ear.

When in this condition, according to Doctor Gilbert E. Fisher of Birmingham, Alabama, these tissues become very nests of infections, infections which may spread to the sinuses in the nose, the ears, the larynx or voice box, the windpipe and bronchi, or the small air passages in the lungs.

Lowered Resistance

Furthermore, Dr. Fisher thinks this also lowers the child's resistance to infections. In older children, a condition known as granular pharyngitis may develop in which the throat is reddened, the lymphoid tissue swollen, and coughing occurs frequently.

This granular pharyngitis may develop into recurrent sore throat, a condition which is seen in adults. Also, a chronic or long-continued obstruction of the eustachian tubes might develop, leading to a form of deafness which is quite common.

Because of these facts, Dr. Fisher believes that it is important to treat the lymphoid tissue in the throat and back part of the nose with radium. The radium treatment will cause the lymphoid tissue to waste and disappear. The treatment is not difficult to carry out.

Slight Soreness

During the first week following treatment, there may be a slight sensation of soreness in the nose and throat, together with an increase in the amount of discharge from the back part of the nose into the throat.

Gradually this discharge clears up and 30 days after treatment, little, if any, discharge occurs. Examination of the nose and throat six weeks after treatment usually shows that the lymphoid tissue has definitely decreased in size, and the mucous discharge has decreased in amount.

This method of treatment has been found to give good results particularly in children in cases of deafness in which there is blocking of the eustachian tubes and in persons who have infections of the nose and throat.

Letters to Dr. Bundesen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Shutting The Mouth

We hold no special brief for the National Association of Manufacturers in its wide-open campaign to discontinue OPA when the Price Control Act expires June 30.

But this business organization, together with other business organizations, such as United States Chamber of Commerce and National Small Business Men's Association, which also are opposed to continuation of price control on existing terms and in fact on any terms at all, have a right to their opinion. We hold a brief for their right to be heard in a public debate without interruption of bureaucrats.

Their spokesmen have been invited to Washington to give expert testimony before congressional committees. In addition to their direct testimony, these and other organizations and individuals have given a great deal of indirect and uninvited testimony, which is their privilege in a free country. They are talking in defense of their own livelihood. Yet, they are being accused at every turn of falsehood, avarice, reaction, even corruption.

In all their activities they have put their cards on the table. They know what the stake is. They know, or think they know, what the opposition's stake is. After a decade of experience with the principal elements of the opposition, they have a healthy respect for its fighting ability. They expect name-calling. They are not above calling names themselves. The struggle to keep private enterprise from being plowed under in the United States is no pillow fight.

Every conscientious citizen must object, has a duty to object, to the presence in this fight of the people's paid public servants. The Chester Bowles and the Paul Porters of the new New Deal bourgeoisie in Washington under the Hannegans trying to build Harry Truman into a man on horseback have no right to impugn the motives of any taxpayer while they are on the public payroll. They are drawing their salaries as administrators, not advocates. If Mr. Truman can order the Navy's admirals to shut their mouths in a dispute which can be settled only by Congress, he is six weeks late in ordering bureaucrats abusing taxpayers in the fight over OPA to shut theirs.

365 Days Since Hitler

A few days ago morbid vandals dug up the corpse of Benito Mussolini from a grave in Milan and excited a spasm of political nerves in the wreckage of the dictatorship he established.

No one has dug up the corpse of Adolf Hitler, nor seems likely to find out where to start digging. In Germany, in Europe, in the world, only 365 days after his death, Adolf Hitler is unimportant, no longer even a stirring symbol, but only a memory of a wretched interval when millions of men killed one another in his name and against it.

During the war, it was customary to speak of Hitler doing this, Hitler doing that, as if the paranoiac Austrian had the ability to be everywhere at once and make all major decisions in his own mind. There was a crusade, men told each other—a crusade to overthrow Adolf Hitler. Germans told each other it was glorious to die to keep Adolf Hitler from being overthrown.

Some of this represented carelessness in substituting the name of a man for the name of a nation. The war was not fought against Hitler, but against Germany. Hitler did not make all decisions; he made only a few of them, some disastrously bad. Most decisions were made by lesser lights in a conspiracy that is now seen to have used Hitler more than Hitler used it. But some of it represented a tragic misconception of the war.

Victory was not to be won by getting rid of a Mussolini, a Hitler, or a Japanese figurehead. It was a thing to be won by getting rid of the kind of warped and bloodthirsty reasoning that made the Mussolinis, Hitlers and the other figureheads possible. Nothing was settled when Hitler's death was reported by his underlings a year ago. Nothing has been settled by Mussolini's death previously, and nothing is being settled by Hirohito posing for photographers in his ridiculous pose of the friend of the people.

The despots were disposed of, but not despotism.

Fact Finding

The looming threat of a strike by key operating employees of the nation's railroads follows, as most strikes and threats of strikes in major industries have followed, the efforts of a fact-finding board.

In this instance, the board had been established under the Railway Mediation Act. Known as an emergency board of inquiry, it is the last step in the elaborate procedure set up under the act to avert railroad strikes. Its recommendations were wholly inapplicable to the policy-making heads of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and of Locomotive Engineers. Whether or not they also were unacceptable to railroad operators is problematic; the operators seemingly were not given any chance to refuse them.

Fact-finding as a kind of last hope for doing something about strikes is wilted and battered. When seasoned trainmen, with long experience under the Railway Mediation Act's procedural steps for averting strikes, become as contemptuous of fact-finding as any bumptious, inexperienced and badly-disciplined group of Wagner Act freshmen, a so-called fact is worth no more than another prejudiced opinion.

By hindsight—all the way back to 1926 when the Railway Mediation Act was passed, as a matter of fact—it seems pretty plain now that facts never did have much bearing on the outcome of labor disputes. In the first place, facts are treacherously variable; they depend on what the fact-finder is looking for. In the second place, all facts adduced in a labor dispute must yield eventually to one of two facts that supersede all others. They are: (1) the union's determination to get more money or (2) the employer's determination not to pay it. Anything else ceases to be collective bargaining.

For Tuesday, April 30.

JUDGING by important planetary aspects, this may be a difficult and trying day, with the possibility of loss of substance, credit, resources, reputation, as well as peace of mind. There are signs of friction, strife, ill-nature and strain.

Competition or rivalry may incite to rash or careless activities in which extravagance, excess or over-indulgence in assets, energy and unreasonable conduct. Minor matters may thrive but in all major affairs, use sound logic and precaution.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of cross-purposes, with important matters moving into loss and dissatisfaction, largely through extravagance, self-indulgence, excesses or acts of impulsive emotional urge rather than by sound reasoning, good sense or logic.

The incentive to "splurge," overact, to stress and strain through rivalry, enmity or competition would result in loss of credit, funds, standing or reputation. With care and precaution, there may be some minor benefits, as well as social or affectional gratifications.

A child born on this day will be active and energetic but stirred by its impulses or emotions, to its detriment, with loss of substance and energies through excess or extravagance.

A learned musicologist has advanced the theory that it was a bagpipe, and not a fiddle, that Nero played while Rome was burning. Here, perhaps, we have the classic ancestor of our modern fire siren.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

The Function Of The Lymph Glands

By HERMAN N. RUNDSEN, M.D.
The lymph glands of your body perform much the same function as the oil filter in your car, for the latter filters out dirt, and the former filters out germs and infection.

It is not surprising that, where infection is frequent or of long duration, the filters themselves should become clogged with these toxic materials. When they do, they reverse their role and instead of affording protection, become a source of danger.

Filtering Stations
Now, one of the greatest of these filtering stations is in the throat. It consists of the tonsils and other lymphoid glands there.

Repeated infections of the nose and throat cause these lymphoid glands to work overtime and in the process they increase in size. Then an excessive amount of mucus is formed in the throat which blocks breathing and the opening of the eustachian tubes which lead from the throat to the middle ear.

When in this condition, according to Doctor Gilbert E. Fisher of Birmingham, Alabama, these tissues become very nests of infections, infections which may spread to the sinuses in the nose, the ears, the larynx or voice box, the windpipe and bronchi, or the small air passages in the lungs.

Lowered Resistance
Furthermore, Dr. Fisher thinks this also lowers the child's resistance to infections. In older children, a condition known as granular pharyngitis may develop in which the throat is reddened, the lymphoid tissue swollen, and coughing occurs frequently.

This granular pharyngitis may develop into recurrent sore throat, a condition which is seen in adults.

Also, a chronic or long-continued obstruction of the eustachian tubes might develop, leading to a form of deafness which is quite common.

Because of these facts, Dr. Fisher believes that it is important to treat the lymphoid tissue in the throat and back part of the nose with radium. The radium treatment will cause the lymphoid tissue to waste and disappear. The treatment is not difficult to carry out.

Slight Soreness
During the first week following treatment, there may be a slight sensation of soreness in the nose and throat, together with an increase in the amount of discharge from the back part of the nose into the throat.

Gradually this discharge clears up and 30 days after treatment little, if any, discharge occurs. Examination of the nose and throat six weeks after treatment usually shows that the lymphoid tissue has definitely decreased in size, and the mucus discharge has decreased in amount.

This method of treatment has been found to give good results particularly in children in cases of deafness in which there is blockage of the eustachian tubes and in persons who have infections of the nose and throat.

Letters to Dr. Rundsen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

MACKENZIE'S Column

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE

It's bad news that there has been such a serious deterioration of morale and discipline among American troops in certain localities and commands of Europe that U. S. Commander General Joseph T. McNarney has found it necessary to inaugurate drastic remedial measures. It's decidedly good news that he has taken vigorous action.

General McNarney's blunt designation of the offenses which have brought about this situation probably will shock the home-folk, although there has been plenty of warning in news dispatches over a considerable period.

Among the things the commander has designated as offenses are: black market participation in black market activities, drunkenness, a high desertion rate and other disciplinary infractions, an excessive general disease rate, and a complaining attitude toward constituted military authority.

That's hard to believe, isn't it? But there it is in black and white, although one hastens to emphasize that this stigma doesn't by any means attach to Uncle Sam's European forces as a whole. Anyway it's a grave epidemic to be circulating among our men, and you can take it from me that the reaction among our Allies definitely is not good.

I ran into this at first hand during my recent tour in Europe, and reported on it in this column. The Allied forces already had been concerned about it and were much concerned although naturally unspoken.

The main fears were that, if the deterioration in morale spread, it might (1) weaken American determination to see the long term of occupation through, and that (2) the Germans might lose respect for the American authority in the Reich.

As a matter of fact, I was told by competent sources that the effect on the Germans was definitely harmful in those American areas which had become infected with this plague. The only things to which the people of the fatherland respond readily are force and stern discipline. The moment discipline is relaxed, they relax with it.

I'm afraid it must be recorded that well intentioned but misguided back home here in America have been responsible to a considerable degree for the slump in morale overseas.

For many months letters from relatives and friends in the United States poured into the occupied zones, beseeching their soldiers to come home and preaching the unfairness of keeping them there after the war was finished. That persistent hammering worried a lot of the boys and made them homesick and discontented. It was an easy step for some to break the rules.

One unsavory aspect of the slump in morale is that it has

COMFORTS CHILD SEARED BY LYE

Walker said his wife was planning to leave him. (International Soundphoto) been accompanied by a slump in morale which has resulted in much fraternization between American soldiers and German women. There are few things calculated to do more damage to American authority over the conquered Hitlerites.

It isn't surprising that General McNarney records an excessive venereal rate. Germany is full of venereal disease, and so are many other parts of Europe for that matter. What else could be expected when Hitler deliberately encouraged immorality in order to breed more soldiers?

The hope is that General McNarney's vigorous action has come in time to repair the damage already done. It would be a disaster if the situation weren't restored.

County To Handle All Relief Cases

LISBON, April 29 — Township trustees have been notified by the newly-formed Columbiana county department of welfare that relief issuances would be made through the centralized county office in Lisbon instead of through the trustees as in past years.

Welfare Director M. A. Curry made the announcement today, effective May 16. Previously township trustees okayed relief payments to clients and the payments were made out in the form of relief orders.

The payments will now be made in check form, Curry said, and issued directly to the relief clients.

The only things to which the people of the fatherland respond readily are force and stern discipline. The moment discipline is relaxed, they relax with it. I'm afraid it must be recorded that well intentioned but misguided folk back home here in America have been responsible to a considerable degree for the slump in morale overseas.

For many months letters from relatives and friends in the United States poured into the occupied zones, beseeching their soldiers to come home and preaching the unbusiness of keeping them there after the war was finished. That persistent hammering worried a lot of the boys and made them homesick and discontented. It was an easy step for some to break the rules.

One unsavory aspect of the slump in morale is that it has been accompanied by a slump in morale which has resulted in much fraternization between American soldiers and German women. There are few things calculated to do more damage to American authority over the conquered Hitlerites.

It isn't surprising that General McNarney records an excessive venereal disease, and so are many other parts of Europe for that matter. What else could be expected when Hitler deliberately encouraged immorality in order to breed more soldiers?

The hope is that General McNarney's vigorous action has come in time to repair the damage already done. It would be a disaster if the situation weren't restored.

Dented Fenders Made Like New By Matt Klein

We have become so accustomed to driving a car that has dented or torn fenders, dents in the body and loose front-end bearings that little thought is given to the fact that when we are privileged to drive to an agency and trade for that new car its value will be much less than we had expected.

Most fenders that look beyond repair can be made to look new by expert body and fender repairmen at Matt Klein's specialized garage on Newgarden st.

Front-end alignment is a specialty at the Klein garage. Here he has every device known to the trade to straighten axles, frames, rods, wheels all by a method that requires no heating. At the same time gauges that are positively accurate are used which eliminates any guess work.

Dented Fenders Made Like New By Matt Klein

We have become so accustomed to driving a car that has dented or torn fenders, dents in the body and loose front-end bearings that little thought is given to the fact that when we are privileged to drive to an agency and trade for that new car its value will be much less than we had expected.

Most fenders that look beyond repair can be made to look new by expert body and fender repairmen at Matt Klein's specialized garage on Newgarden st.

Front-end alignment is a specialty at the Klein garage. Here he has every device known to the trade to straighten axles, frames, rods, wheels all by a method that requires no heating. At the same time gauges that are positively accurate are used which eliminates any guess work.

Sinclairs, Recreation Ready For New Season

Two more of 1945's Class A softball entries—the Championship Sinclair Oilers and the Recreation—have their respective lineups fairly well arranged for the new season and both outfits promise to make things tough for the balance of the 17-team field.

On paper, Manager Buck Ritchie's Sinclair squad looks equally as potent as it was in 1945, when the team showed exceptional progress and ended the season by copping the third round title and going on to defeat Mullins for the city title in a best two of three series at Reilly field.

Ritchie, who will be absent until mid-June when he completes the school year at Wittenberg college, has signed Chet Brautigam, veteran slow-pitcher, as the pitcher for the Oilers.

Brautigam, who worked effectively for The Salem News during the past two seasons, will take over the position left vacant by Sinclair's Mutt Schaeffer, now in the armed forces.

Behind the plate, Sinclair will again use Gale Stewart, who won prizes as the league's best catcher last year.

Fred "Lefty" Schmid, who will handle Ritchie's managerial duties

until June, will play first base. Dave Ritchie will work on second and Don Freed, a newcomer to the Oilers, will be at short.

For third base the Oilers have contracted Bob Miller, high school catcher, who filled the same job for the Oilers last year and lead the league in hitting with a mark near 500.

In the outfield speedy Eddie Bosick will again play roving short. Other outfield candidates include Lee Shafer, Keith Sidinger, John Pridon, "Mo" Mollinger, Carl Field, Tom Houlett and Manager Ritchie, who will probably alternate between infield and outfield after his return.

Both Houlett and Bosick are also pitchers and may help Brautigam in the hurling department.

From early indications Sinclair will again be one of the youngest teams in the league, well supplied with speed, pep and excellent defensive ability. Brautigam's pitching, which has baffled the best in the past two years backed up by the sterling defensive play of which the Oilers are capable will make Sinclair a power to be contended with from all angles.

The squad developed an excellent batting punch last year and should continue from the point at which it left off.

Manager Joe Kelley of the Recreation, always well supplied with top-notch players, will stick to his regular lineup in a number of the positions and has added power as a result of veterans coming back into the "Old Timer" fold.

Kelley probably will use Bill Pauline as pitcher Eddie Pukaski is slated for a third base assignment and Wink Miller, reliable shortstop, will be back with the squad.

Kelley works around second base and Charlie Huffer may be at first. Ralph Moffett, former Rec catcher, is also back and will be in the lineup Centerfielder Red Hall, who played with the Old Timers four years ago, has returned and will be playing, Kelley said.

"Sim" Early, former league umpire and player, plans to join the Rec this season, also.

Cornelius Sabotka, who led the league in hitting part of the season last year, is a Rec recruit again and Jimmie Primm, one of the oldest players in point of years' activity, will be at the roving short position.

Don Kopf, former Salem China catcher, is expected to play with the Recreation, Kelley indicated.

Vince Moore, a former Rec, will be performing with the Saxon entry this season, he said.

Kelley said his complete roster is not yet made up and additional players may be signed before the league opens on Monday, May 6, at Centennial park.

Boston Fans Vision All-City World Series As Braves, Red Sox Capture Double-Headers

'Bums', Redbirds Lose Two; 57,149 See Indians' Embree Defeat Detroit In 12 Innings

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pennant-starved Boston, which hasn't boasted a championship team since 1918, has good reason for dreaming today of its first flag winner in 28 years, and with a little luck could possibly be the center of an all-city World Series next October.

Both Boston representatives—the Red Sox and Braves—swept double-headers from their Philadelphia rivals yesterday to change the pennant pictures. The Red Sox whipped the Athletics, 2-1 and 5-1, and the Braves took the measure of the Phils, 6-1 and 2-1.

The coup de grace engineered by the Red Sox placed Joe Cronin's hopefuls at the top of the American league, a full game in front of the New York Yankees. The Braves, still rebounding from a hitless afternoon against Brooklyn's Ed Head, Tuesday, are in third place after fourth straight victories. Only one game separates them from the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

It's been exactly a dozen years since both Boston clubs finished together in the first division and never have they won the flag simultaneously. In fact, the Braves have enjoyed only one championship season, coming on to win in 1914 after most of the experts had reserved the cellar for them. So Boston fans are keeping their fingers crossed hoping that Mort Cooper can come up with another 20-game season and that the money which bought Johnny Hopp and Ray Sanders from the Cardinals holds out. As for the Red Sox, nothing less than a first place finish will satisfy the Hub fans.

Tex Hughson and Mickey Harris, who with Dave (Boo) Ferriss, are expected to carry the brunt of the Red Sox pitching, each picked up his third victory in stopping the A's yesterday. Hughson, whose triumph in the opener was his second over the Mackmen, gave up eight hits to outlast Luther Kearn. Harris limited the A's to seven hits in out-dueling Bobo Newsum, who previously had blanketed the Sox.

Cooper Comes Back
The Braves also got some scintillating hurling. Big Mort Cooper, showing no ill effects from last year's sore arm, handcuffed Ben Chapman's crew with eight safeties in the opener and young Johnny Sain gained his third straight triumph with a seven-hitter in the nightcap. The other end of the battery provided the winning margins in each game. Catcher Stu Hofferth's three-run triple tied the first game and Catcher Phil Masi's single brought in the winning marker in the finale.

The Brooks and Cards, one-two in the senior circuit, each suffered a double reversal. The New York Giants supplied the knockout punch to their interborough rivals before 54,181 paying customers, and the champion Chicago Cubs gave the Redbirds a thorough going over.

As might be expected, it was Goody Rosen, a Dodger, hiring himself only last Friday, who packed the biggest wallop of all the Giants. His three singles in the first game and a three-run homer and one-bagger in the second were the big blows of the Giants' 7-3 and 10-4 decisions. Rosen shared honors with Hal Schumacher, who made his first start since leaving for the navy three years ago. Schumacher spaced seven hits in the opener to snap Brooklyn's eight-game winning streak.

The Cubs got revenge for three previous defeats by the Red Birds by winning 9-7 and 3-1 before 31,999 fans. A single by Charlie Gilbreath scored the winning marker for Cubs in the 10th inning of the opener after Tommy Livingston's homer had tied the score in the ninth. In the nightcap, Lefty Johnny Schmitz was just too good for the Cards' Ken Burkhardt.

Wolff Hits Yanks
Knuckballer Roger Wolff knocked the Yankees out of first place 3-1 with a well-pitched seven-hitter as teammate, Stan Spence provided the winning margin with a double in the eighth that scored two runners. Allen Gettel, after two straight victories, was charged with the defeat.

The Tigers disappointed the largest crowd in Detroit's history—57,149 paid admissions—by bowing to the Cleveland Indians 3-1 in 12 innings to sink deeper into third place. Red Embree, who held the Tigers to six hits and would have had a shutout but for Hank Greenberg's second home run of the season, won his own game when he doubled in two mates in the 12th. Cincinnati's unpredictable Reds gained their fourth straight victory over Pittsburgh's Pirates 7-1 as Ed Heusser held the Bucs in check with seven safeties. Rookie Grady Hatton was the big gun with a homer, double and single and batted in four runs.

Aged Ted Lyons of the Chicago White Sox registered his 200th triumph, his first since his release from the U. S. marines, by taming the St. Louis Browns 4-3 in the first game of a double header. The Browns, scoring nine unanswered in the first frame, won the second contest 11-8, as the White Sox used 22 players including seven pitchers.

Plan Softball Meeting

Joe Kelley, Class A Managers to Meet at Building at 7:30 P. M. Tuesday, To Iron Out Enlarged League Problems, Rules

Joe Kelley, manager of Salem's softball leagues, has called all 17 Class A team managers to a meeting at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday to discuss league arrangements and rules.

Each manager is urged to be present at the meeting, Kelley said, or send a representative of his team.

An arrangement for grouping in two leagues will be discussed and some further talk on rules will be held.

Any team not represented will be placed in one of the two leagues according to the arrangement worked out by those at the meeting, Kelley said.

BELL RETURNS TO YOUNGSTOWN FOR TUESDAY BATTLE

Bobby Simmons To Be Target For Bell's Offering At Rayen-Wood Show

Tommy Bell, Youngstown's hard-hitting welterweight, will trade punches with Bobby Simmons of Indianapolis in the ten-round main bout at Youngstown's Rayen-Wood auditorium Tuesday.

Bell lost a ten-round decision to Jake LaMotta in Madison Square garden in January, but bounced back into the win column with a five-round kayo over Ike Williams at Philadelphia last month. Bell is campaigning for a return shot at "Sugar" Ray Robinson.

Capable of Battle
Bobby Simmons should be capable of giving Bell a tough session. In three years of fighting in the welterweight division the Hoosier slugger has met the best boys in the middle-west.

Two weeks too in Chicago he battled Cleveland's Chuck Hunter to a split decision in ten rounds. Hunter getting a 2-1 vote.

Promoter Bill Walsh has lined up a strong supporting card Mike Berskovich of Niles, who has scored knockouts in his last four starts, will be seen in the semi-final spot against Chuck Ross of Cleveland. Ross is a hard-hitter who may snap the Niles lads' victory string.

Lalo Bercozo of Youngstown, former Cleveland Golden Gloves champion, makes his pro debut in a four-rounder against Copeland Turner of Cleveland. Another four pits Eddie Sulk of Pittsburgh against Dick Sharino of Cleveland. All are lightweights.

IT'S SENSATIONAL

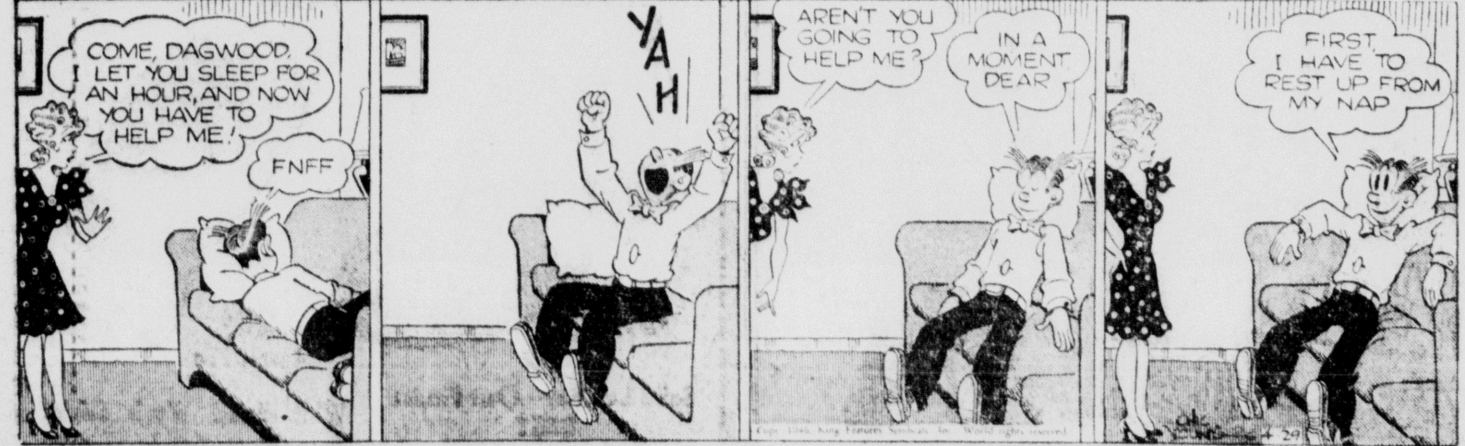

Mr. Gause, of the Fitzpatrick Motor Co., has just returned from Chicago with glowing reports of the new 1947 post-war Studebakers that were unveiled to dealers for the first time on April 24th.

"I wish I could describe them to you," Mr. Gause said, "but I've been sworn to secrecy until the public announcement is made early next month. However, I am sure that when you see them you'll agree they set completely new standards for the industry."

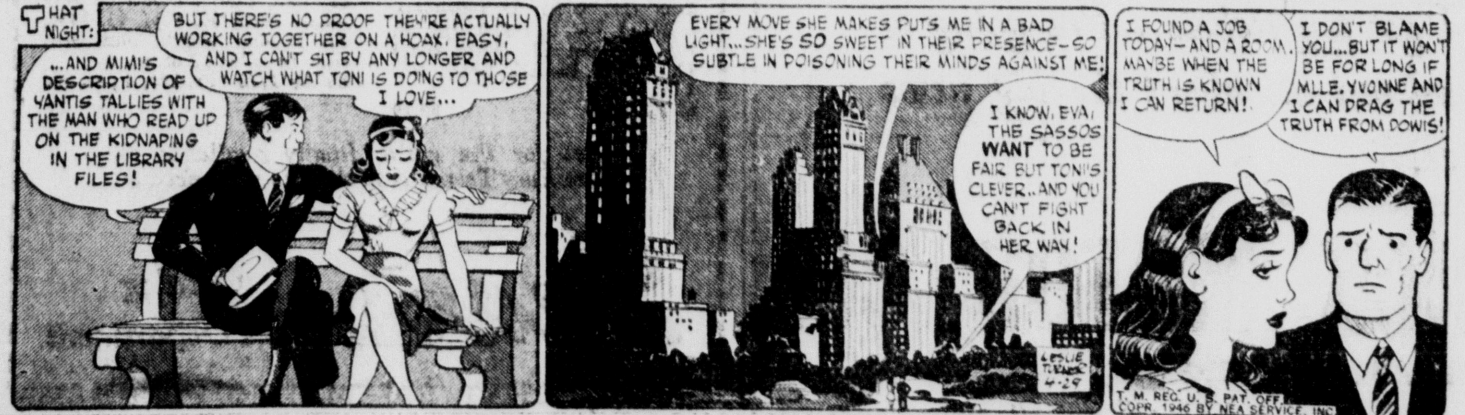

Mr. Gause states that these new Studebakers will be on display in his showrooms soon and that the public will be advised of the exact announcement date through local advertising.

Sinclairs, Recreation Ready For New Season

Two more of 1945's Class A softball entries—the Championship Sinclair Oilers and the Recreation—have their respective lineups fairly well arranged for the new season and both outfits promise to make things tough for the balance of the 17-team field.

On paper, Manager Buck Ritchie's Sinclair squad looks equally as potent as it was in 1945, when the team showed exceptional progress and ended the season by copping the third round title and going on to defeat Mullins for the city title in a best two of three series at Reilly field.

Ritchie, who will be absent until mid-June when he completes the school year at Wittenberg college, has signed Chet Brautigam, veteran slow-baller, as the pitcher for the Oilers.

Brautigam, who worked effectively for The Salem News during the past two seasons, will take over the assignment left vacant by Sinclair's Mutt Schaeffer, now in the armed forces.

Behind the plate, Sinclair will again use Gale Stewart, who won praise as the league's best catcher last year.

Fred "Lefty" Schmid, who will handle Ritchie's managerial duties

until June, will play first base. Dave Ritchie will work on second and Don Freed, a newcomer to the Oilers, will be at short.

For third base the Oilers have contracted Bob Miller, high school coach, who filled the same job for the Oilers last year and lead the league in hitting with a mark near 500.

In the outfield speedy Eddie Bosick will again play roving short. Other outfield candidates include Lee Shafer, Keith Sidinger, John Pridon, "Mo" Mollinger, Carl Field, Tom Houlett and Manager Ritchie, who will probably alternate between infield and outfield after his return.

Both Houlett and Bosick are also pitchers and may help Brautigam in the hurling department.

From early indications Sinclair will again be one of the youngest teams in the league, well supplied with speed, pep and excellent defensive ability.

Brautigam's pitching, which has baffled the best in the past two years backed up by the sterling defensive play of which the Oilers are capable will make Sinclair a power to be contended with from all angles.

The squad developed an excellent batting punch last year and should continue from the point at which it left off.

Manager Joe Kelley of the Recreation, always well supplied with top-notch players, will stick to his regular lineup in a number of the positions and has added power as a result of veterans coming back into the "Old Timer" fold.

Kelley probably will use Bill Pauline as pitcher. Eddie Pukalski is slated for a third base assignment and Wink Miller, reliable shortstop, will be back with the squad.

Kelley works around second base and Charlie Huffer may be at first. Ralph Moffett, former Rec catcher, is also back and will be in the lineup. Centerfielder Red Hall, who played with the Old Timers four years ago, has returned and will be playing, Kelley said.

"Sim" Early, former league umpire and player, plans to join the Rec this season, also.

Cornelius Sabotka, who led the league in hitting part of the season last year, is a Rec recruit again and Jimmie Primm, one of the oldest players in point of years' activity, will be at the roving short position.

Don Kopf, former Salem China catcher, is expected to play with the Recreation, Kelley indicated.

Vince Moore, a former Rec, will be performing with the Saxon entry this season, he said.

Kelley said his complete roster is not yet made up and additional players may be signed before the league opens on Monday, May 6, at Centennial park.

Boston Fans Vision All-City World Series As Braves, Red Sox Capture Double-Headers

'Bums', Redbirds Lose Two; 57,149 See Indians' Embree Defeat Detroit In 12 Innings

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pennant-starved Boston, which hasn't boasted a championship team since 1918, has good reason for dreaming today of its first flag winner in 28 years, and with a little luck could possibly be the center of an all-city World Series next October.

Both Boston representatives—the Red Sox and Braves—swept double-headers from their Philadelphia rivals yesterday to change the pennant pictures. The Red Sox whipped the Athletics, 2-1 and 5-1, and the Braves took the measure of the Phils, 6-1 and 2-1.

The coup de grace engineered by the Red Sox placed Joe Cronin's hopefuls at the top of the American league, a full game in front of the New York Yankees. The Braves, still rebounding from a bitter defeat against Brooklyn's Ed Head last Tuesday, are in third place after fourth straight victories. Only one game separates them from the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

It's been exactly a dozen years since both Boston clubs finished together in the first division and never have they won the flag simultaneously. In fact, the Braves have enjoyed only one championship season, coming up to win in 1914 after most of the experts had agreed the cellar for them. So Boston fans are keeping their fingers crossed hoping that Mort Cooper can come up with another 20-game season and that the money which bought Johnny Hopp and Ray Sanders from the Cardinals holds out. As for the Red Sox, nothing less than a first place finish will satisfy the Hub fans.

Tex Hughson and Mickey Harris, who with Dave (Boo) Ferris, are expected to carry the hunt of the Red Sox pitching, each picked up his third victory in stopping the A's yesterday. Hughson, whose triumph in the opener was his second over the Mackmen, gave up eight hits to outlast Luther Knerr. Harris limited the A's to seven hits in out-dueling Bobo Newsom, who previously had blanked the Sox.

Cooper Comes Back
The Braves also got some scintillating hurling. Big Mort Cooper, showing no ill effects from last year's sore arm, handed Ben Chapman's crew with eight safeties in the opener and young Johnny Sain gained his third straight triumph with a seven-hitter in the nightcap. The other end of the battery provided the winning margins in each game. Catcher Stu Hofferth's three-run triple led the first game and Catcher Phil Masi's single brought in the winning marker in the finale.

The Brooks and Cards, one-two in the senior circuit, suffered a double reversal. The New York Giants supplied the knockout punch to their interborough rivals before 54,181 paying customers, and the champion Chicago Cubs gave the Redbirds a thorough going over.

Plan Softball Meeting

Joe Kelley, Class A Managers to Meet at Building at 7:30 P. M. Tuesday, To Iron Out Enlarged League Problems, Rules

Joe Kelley, manager of Salem's softball leagues, has called all 17 Class A team managers to a meeting at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday to discuss league arrangements and rules.

Each manager is urged to be present at the meeting, Kelley said, or send a representative of his team.

An arrangement for grouping in two leagues will be discussed and some further talk on rules will be held.

Any team not represented will be placed in one of the two leagues according to the arrangement worked out by those at the meeting, Kelley said.

BELL RETURNS TO YOUNGSTOWN FOR TUESDAY BATTLE

Bobby Simmons To Be Target For Bell's Offering At Rayen-Wood Show

Tommy Bell, Youngstown's hard-hitting welterweight, will trade punches with Bobby Simmons of Indianapolis in the ten-round main bout at Youngstown's Rayen-Wood auditorium Tuesday.

Bell lost a ten-round decision to Jake LaMotta in Madison Square garden in January, but bounced back into the win column with a five-round kayo over Ike Williams at Philadelphia last month. Bell is campaigning for a return shot at "Sugar" Ray Robinson.

Capable of Battle
Bobby Simmons should be capable of giving Bell a tough session. In three years of fighting in the welterweight division the Hoosier slugger has met the best boys in the middle-west.

Two weeks ago in Chicago he battled Cleveland's Chuck Hunter to a split-decision in ten rounds. Hunter getting a 2-1 vote.

Promoter Bill Walsh has lined up a strong supporting card Mike Berskovich of Niles, who has scored knockouts in his last four starts, will be seen in the semi-final spot against Chuck Ross of Cleveland. Ross is a hard-hitter who may snap the Niles lads' victory string.

Lalo Berezio of Youngstown, former Cleveland Golden Gloves champion, makes his pro debut in a four-rounder against Copeland Turner of Cleveland. Another four pits Eddie Sulk of Pittsburgh against Dick Sharino of Cleveland. All are lightweights.

Boyle's COLUMN

By HELEN CAMP
(For Hal Boyle)

WENTWORTH, Yorkshire, England—Scores of people come daily to stand look at excavations on the historic, rolling acres of Wentworth Woodhouse, Yorkshire estate of Earl Fitzwilliam.

They are not ordinary persons, looking idly at ordinary excavations. They are the little folk of Wentworth watching the last of their scenic landmarks being torn up for open surface coal mining.

Deer scamper away from the bulldozers, big trees come crashing down, rhododendron bushes are uprooted, jonquils and little white star flowers are crushed under tractors.

It's like turning the Roosevelt estate at Hyde Park, N. Y., into a colliery. But it is part of the government program to get more and more coal out of England and to relieve the "crucial" mining situation.

Solemnly, a Wentworth miner spat in the direction of a huge steam shovel digging more than 50 feet underground to the layer of soft coal.

"It's not even proper coal they're getting," he said. "It's nothing but dirt. I wouldn't burn it myself."

"It was the only bit of scenery we had around there," his companion grumbled, watching a 60-foot beech tree crash to the ground. "Now they're taking it from us."

For years the people of Wentworth—mostly poor miners—have accepted having their fields and hills and woods plowed under for open surface or strip mining. They didn't object when the destructive shovels first entered the Wentworth estate two years ago. But as the mining project crept nearer the famed gardens and deer park they started a fuss heard all over Yorkshire.

They protested through mining associations, the press, the house of commons. They asked if underground mining couldn't be used to save the park surface. The owner of the estate, Earl Fitzwilliam, made a last appeal to the prime minister.

The outcome of the interview was not announced. But Minister of Fuel Emmanuel Shinwell said mining in Wentworth park would "proceed as planned". The coal could be removed and the land reconstructed, he said, in "a twelve-month".

One little man with a heavy Scottish accent packed dirt around some uprooted white star flowers and placed them beside daffodils he'd collected earlier.

"I'll save these anyway," he said. And then, looking at the solemn-faced bystanders, "to the people around here Earl Fitzwilliam is their king. They think it's a crime to tear up his park."

Crushed By Drying

In ancient China, political prisoners sometimes were put to death by being wrapped in a fresh rhinoceros skin. The skin contracted as it dried and crushed its victim.

Charles B. King built and drove the first car in Detroit on March 6, 1895.

No GI For Her

AN IOWA Wesleyan freshman, Miss Helen Braden of Oskaloosa, Ia., declares she will never marry a GI "because they make poor husbands".

Defending that thesis, the 20-year-old pert and shapely coed has won her way to the finals on the annual Interstate Oratorical association tournament at Northwestern university in Evanston, Ill. Likening the GI to a "crude and ruthless" man waiting for the government to offer a "bonus or a dole," Miss Braden said, "I want my prospective husband to be able to think for himself."

Fooled Army

GUNTER KAPPEL, Liegnitz, Germany, is shown after he was unmasked as a German spy who, for more than a year, passed himself off as a captain in the U. S. Army. In 1944, Kappel, then a Luftwaffe lieutenant, infiltrated into American lines where he was picked up in ragged condition posing as Theodore Corring, born in Buenos Aires of a North American father and Italian mother. His English and Spanish was excellent and after close interrogation he was taken into the Army as a captain. At the end of the war, he obtained a job with UNRRA, and it was only after Italian authorities suspected him of theft of a jeep, that he was detected.

Leetonia Factory Expansion To Begin

LEETONIA, April 29.—C. E. Holt, Sr., secretary of the Leetonia Tool Co., has been informed by federal building authorities that he had been granted permission for the construction of a larger, more modern building.

The contract has been let to the Heller-Murray Co. of Youngstown and construction is scheduled to get under way at once. Ground for the building will be broken within the next few days.

The new shop will be 100 feet wide and 240 feet long, to be erected of steel, brick and glass.

The company's new home will be located on land lying just west of the present factory site, the grounds extending west to Pine st. and from W. Main st. south to the railroad. The company, which has furnished marine and mining tools to firms and individuals in every part of the world for the past 30 years, has grown steadily until present facilities are inadequate. Machinery and equipment at present making the shop too crowded for efficient and safe production. Some of the present equipment will be replaced by newer machinery and supplemented by additional equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morgan are the parents of a son born Thursday at the Salem City hospital, to be named Paul Raymond. Mrs. Morgan is the former Jean Baker.

Boyle's COLUMN

By HELEN CAMP
(For Hal Boyle)

WENTWORTH, Yorkshire, England—Scores of people come daily to stand look at excavations on the historic, rolling acres of Wentworth Woodhouse, Yorkshire estate of Earl Fitzwilliam.

They are not ordinary persons, looking idly at ordinary excavations. They are the little folk of Wentworth watching the last of their scenic landmarks being torn up for open surface coal mining.

Deer scamper away from the bulldozers, big trees come crashing down, rhododendron bushes are uprooted, jonquils and little white star flowers are crushed under tractors. It's like turning the Roosevelt estate at Hyde Park N. Y. into a cillibery. But it is part of the government program to get more and more coal out of England and to relieve the "crucial" mining situation.

Solemnly, a Wentworth miner spat in the direction of a huge steam shovel digging more than 50 feet underground to the layer of soft coal.

"It's not even proper coal they're getting," he said. "It's nothing but dirt. I wouldn't burn it myself."

"It was the only bit of scenery we had around there," his companion grumbled, watching a 60-foot beech tree crash to the ground. "Now they're taking it from us." For years the people of Wentworth—mostly poor miners—have accepted having their fields and hills and woods plowed under for open surface or strip mining. They didn't object when the destructive shovels first entered the Wentworth estate two years ago. But as the mining project crept nearer the famed gardens and deer park they started a fuss heard all over Yorkshire.

They protested through mining associations, the press, the house of commons. They asked if underground mining couldn't be used to save the park surface. The owner of the estate, Earl Fitzwilliam, made a last appeal to the prime minister.

The outcome of the interview was not announced. But Minister of Fuel Emmanuel Shinwell said mining in Wentworth park would "proceed as planned." The coal could be removed and the land reconstructed, he said, in "a twelve-month."

One little man with a heavy Scottish accent packed dirt around some uprooted white star flowers and placed them beside daffodils he'd collected earlier.

"I'll save these anyway," he said. And then, looking at the solemn-faced bystanders, "to the people around here Earl Fitzwilliam is their king. They think it's a crime to tear up his park."

Crushed By Drying

In ancient China, political prisoners sometimes were put to death by being wrapped in a fresh rhinoceros skin. The skin contracted as it dried and crushed its victim.

No GI For Her

AN IOWA Wesleyan freshman, Miss Helen Braden of Oskaloosa, Ia., declares she will never marry a GI "because they make poor husbands." Defending that thesis, the 20-year-old poet and shapely coed has won her way to the finals on the annual Interstate Oratorical association tournament at Northwestern university in Evanston, Ill. Likening the GI to a "crude and ruthless" man waiting for the government to offer a "bonus or a dole" Miss Braden said, "I want my prospective husband to be able to think for himself."

Leetonia Factory Expansion To Begin

LEETONIA, April 29.—C. E. Holt, Sr., secretary of the Leetonia Tool Co., has been informed by federal building authorities that he had been granted permission for the construction of a larger, more modern building.

The contract has been let to the Heller-Murray Co. of Youngstown and construction is scheduled to get under way at once. Ground for the building will be broken within the next few days.

The new shop will be 100 feet wide and 240 feet long to be erected of steel, brick and glass.

The company's new home will be located on land lying just west of the present factory site, the grounds extending west to Pine st. and from W. Main st. south to the railroad. The company, which has furnished marine and mining tools to firms and individuals in every part of the world for the past 30 years, has grown steadily until present facilities are inadequate.

Machinery and equipment at present are scattered in two small buildings making the shop too crowded for efficient and safe production. Some of the present equipment will be replaced by newer machinery and supplemented by additional equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morgan are the parents of a son born Thursday at the Salem City hospital, to be named Paul Raymond. Mrs. Morgan is the former Jean Baker.
